

For your information:

This is an English translation only! Only the German text is legally binding!
Please refer to the individually applicable information as stated in the German text:

Upon having submitted your dissertation, your Application for Admission to the Examination for a Doctoral Degree has been approved. Your examination committee has been appointed as follows:

as supervisor: (refer to German text)
as supervisor: (refer to German text)
as further/additional member: (refer to German text)
as further/additional member: (refer to German text)

(refer to German text) has been appointed chairman of the committee.

You are required to provide a copy of your dissertation to each supervisor, respectively, as soon as possible.

The examination committee chairman, whom you should contact as soon as possible, will determine the date of defence. It is suggested that you provide a copy of your dissertation to the other two examination committee members for perusal.